Tomorrow evening

6.30pm Sunday Evening Service in the Iona Tradition, created and led by Lynn Busfield and Becky Morse-Brown reflecting on the God of New Beginnings.

Thank you

Tariro and Brian were married on Thursday. Church rang with joyous singing. They looked to the Lord and were radiant (Psalm 34).

That Tariro and Brian look fabulous on their wedding day was rather more predictable than the weather. Here they are, just newly married.

Music and dancing continued into the evening, African fabrics bringing yet more richness to the magnificent day.

Thank you to everyone who helped make the wedding such a glorious occasion:

those cleaning church before and after,
bringing lovingly made canapes and mulled fruit juice,
hosting, guiding and serving,
rehearsing music,
setting out furniture,
printing and laminating,
preparing and cleaning Communion vessels.

We were hosts for the wedding and guests at the wedding. I loved the way The ZINAFE choir and All Saints Singers exchanged gifts, graciously handed leadership to and fro and blended together.

Thank you for all you have made it possible. We welcome Mr and Mrs Mukoja back on Sunday 28th January.

With joyful thanks for all of you

David

The Revd Lynn Busfield offers these weekly opportunities for reflection:

New fellowship group on Monday evenings at 7.30pm informally to discuss the previous morning's sermon.

There is room for up to eight people each time, so it would be helpful if you could let the host – Lynn Busfield – know if you are coming:
