

All Saints Church Newsletter

Tomorrow, 18th February, The first Sunday in Lent

An order of service for Morning Prayer with music links will be on our website at the weekend.

8am Holy Communion

10am Holy Communion

Readings: Genesis 9:8-17, 1 Peter 3:18-end and Mark 1:9-15

All are welcome also to the 6.30pm Iona Service: 'A Lenten Lament: Bringing our Fractured World to the God of Hope'

There's More To Sarshole Mill Than You Think....

A talk at All Saints Church by Jim Andrew on Saturday March 8th at 3pm in the Church

Sarshole Mill is situated on the Ring Road between Kings Heath and Hall Green

A talk will reveal and re-examine building, structure, facilities and parts of Sarshole Mill's history and its role in the area of Kings Heath and Hall Green.
The talk will reveal the first factory, the construction of the mill, the mill's role, as well as the mill's role in the area of Kings Heath and Hall Green. Finally, the speaker will describe a walk around the mill and its surroundings, and will show some of the mill's history in the landscape.

Tickets Just £5 (including tea, coffee and cake) available on the door or from the Parish Office, All Saints
Community Cafe and the Church on Sunday Morning

All Saints Church is situated in the Centre of Kings Heath corner of the High Street and Church Lane

You are warmly invited to:

From Global Solidarity To Local Action

7:00-9:00pm Tuesday 12th March 2024

at All Saints Church Centre, 2 Vicarage Rd, Kings Heath, B14 7RA

The Letters from the Global South exhibition is coming to All Saints Church and Footsteps is taking the opportunity to explore how the exhibition and the Climate and Ecology Bill can inspire local action.

Letters from the Global South is a pop-up exhibition that features letters and images created by schoolchildren and campaigners from communities around the world, particularly those vulnerable to the climate & nature crises.

The Climate and Ecology Bill is a plan for a new UK law that addresses the full extent of the climate and nature crisis in line with the most up-to-date science. The Bill is the only proposed legislation before the UK Parliament that ensures a comprehensive and joined-up approach to climate change.

The event is free, please register to receive the Zoom link:

Register for Global Solidarity to Local Action

And a reminder that there's still time to register for this online workshop:

COP28 Update and Reflections

7:30–8:30pm Monday 19th February 2024

online via Zoom

A one-hour Zoom workshop with Kamran Shezad, reflecting on his experiences of attending COP28.

Kamran is Sustainability Lead for the BAHU Trust, and a Footsteps steering group member. He attended COP28 as a faith community representative and as an advisor to the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) where BAHU Trust has accredited 'Observer Status'.

Kamran will first share his experience of COP28 and then respond to questions.

The event is free, please register to receive the Zoom link:

Register for COP28 Update & Reflections

More Footsteps News

Imagining Tomorrow Podcast

Footsteps volunteer Toqueer appeared in a recent episode of 'Imagining Tomorrow', Friends of the Earth's "hope-filled podcast about envisaging a positive future in the face of the climate crisis". The third episode is about decarbonising heating for faith spaces and other large community buildings.

Listen to the Podcast

Ride for their Lives

Sunday 24th March 2pm

at Centenary Square, Birmingham city centre

Footsteps is supporting this event led by Ride for Their Lives, an "international collaboration of healthcare providers riding together to explore the actions we must take to protect the planet for our patients and children."

Read more about Ride for Their Lives.

What is 'Footsteps'?

Footsteps (Faiths for a Low Carbon Future) brings together faith groups in Birmingham to respond to the challenge of moving to a low carbon future. A project of Birmingham Council of Faiths, registered charity no. 1015006

The Revd Lynn Busfield offers these weekly opportunities for reflection:

New fellowship group on Monday evenings at 7.30pm informally to discuss the previous morning's sermon.

There is room for up to eight people each time, so it would be helpful if you could let the host – Lynn Busfield – know if you are coming:

email: lynnbusfield58@icloud.com

Address: Flat 4, 28 Gracewell Road, B13 9XG

For our prayers

Among those in our community and networks who are unwell, we remember Mike and Rosie Cross.

Among those who have died, we remember Ingrid Patrick, Gordon Middleton and Suzy Singh.

Saints Alive magazine

Click here to read all the recent issues

Do you know someone who would like to receive this newsletter? Do forward it to them

If you have received a forwarded email, click here to subscribe:

SUBSCRIBE TO NEWSLETTER

<parishoffice@allsaintschurchkh.org>
</parishoffice@allsaintschurchkh.org>

Best wishes,

David The Revd Canon David Warbrick, Vicar of All Saints Kings Heath

✉ vicar@allsaintschurchkh.org

☎ (0121) 444 0260

All Saints Church

Vicarage Road, Kings Heath, Birmingham
United Kingdom

You received this email because you gave permission for All Saints church to contact you. If you would rather not receive any further emails, please click unsubscribe below.

Unsubscribe

