Iona Landscape Rocks by John Samuel Peploe

An invitation for musicians.....

The Iona Service planning group would like to enrich the Iona services by establishing a small "pool" of musicians who would be willing to play, as part of the worship and probably individually, on a very occasional basis. Iona services take place at 6.30pm on the 3rd Sunday of every month, and have developed as a quiet, reflective, creative space where all are welcome. If you would be willing to play now and again, or have any questions about what might be involved, please contact Lynn Busfield (email: lynnbusfield58@icloud.com Phone: 07966 52523) or speak to Gillian Lever or Becky Morse-Brown. We would love to hear from you!

" The blue envelopes for church giving for this forthcoming financial year will be available shortly. Please note that this is the FINAL year that we will be using them as they are now not financially viable. If you are concerned in any way about this, please do speak to either Steve Brittle, our Treasurer, or Martha Ann Brookes, our gift aid treasurer." Many thanks, Martha Ann Brookes

Saturday March 9th at 3pm in Church

There's More to Sarehole Mill than you Think, an illustrated talk by Jim Andrew

Spread the word.

The Revd Lynn Busfield offers these weekly opportunities for reflection:

New fellowship group on Monday evenings at 7.30pm informally to discuss the previous morning's sermon.

There is room for up to eight people each time, so it would be helpful if you could let the host - Lynn Busfield - know if you are coming:

Address: Flat 4, 28 Gracewell Road, B13 9XG

For our prayers

Saturday being the second anniversary of the invasion of Ukraine we pray for the whole region, those fighting, those grieving, those treating the injured and those trying to keep ordinary life and services going. We pray, too, for those grieving in Russia, and that voices of opposition may be heard.

Among those in our community who are unwell, we remember Mike and Rosie Cross, Irene Mountford, and Adrian Kozlowski beginning radiotherapy.

Among those who have died, we remember Gordon Middleton and Suzy Singh.
