Lu Skerratt Love called to Liverpool

I am delighted to finally announce that I will be ordained (subject to the successful completion of my training) on 22nd June 2024 at Liverpool Cathedral. I will be serving my curacy at St Luke's in the City which comprises of three parishes in the centre of Liverpool. Thank you so much for your continued prayers, support, and care for myself and Kat during my ordination training, and please do continue to pray for us as we prepare to move, also for Rev Laura, and the communities of St Luke's in the City. With much love from us both, Lu and Kat.

🌍 Anglicans from around the world have been sharing what the Lambeth Call on Anglican Identity means to them, and how this theme supports the life of the Anglican Communion.

The 'Being Anglican' series is dedicated to exploring key themes from the Call and sharing inspiring reflections from the global Anglican Communion.

Over the last few weeks, we have heard from The Right Revd Anthony Poggo, The Most Revd Thabo Makgoba, The Reverend Canon Justine Coverdale, The Reverend Rana Khan, Dioceses of Dublin and Glendalough, Tariro Matsveru and The Right Revd Jorge Pina Cabral. In the weeks ahead we look forward to hearing more inspiring reflections from the Communion and how they are taking the Call on Anglican Identity forward in their settings.

Love being Anglican?

What does Being Anglican mean in today's world?

We invite you to join us on February 7th and 8th for the next Phase 3 discussion webinar – Being Anglican: Exploring the Lambeth Call on Anglican Identity.

Hear from Anglicans, across the world, as we explore what it means to be Anglican, how we can be in communion through mission, and ways to share life together through Companion links.

Don't miss the opportunity to discover new resources and strategies that will help you take forward the Lambeth Call on Anglican Identity. Register here:
