

All Saints Church Newsletter

This week we delight in our young adults in Inclusion +'s creativity in Pantomime; we bring our needs and hopes for the world in prayer on Sunday; we anticipate celebrating the marriage partnerships that have begun at All Saints in the last 160 years and anticipate Christian Aid Week's fundraising for their development and relief work in partnership with local organisations around the world.

This is me!

Inclusion +, part of All Saints Youth Project supporting young adults, are performing a Pantomime.

This Friday 26th April 2024 at 7pm

This Saturday 27th April 2.30 pm at All Saints Church

Tickets £10 adults £5. children and concessions £20 Family Ticket (2 adults and up to 3 children)

Tickets on sale at the parish office, and the community Cafe. Tickets will also be available on the door.

Director Louise Wood says:

"This production is based on some real life experiences, and some fictional stories.

The ideas have come mostly from the young people, and was inspired by their recent performances with both Birmingham royal ballet, and Circus Mash.

The story represents a journey to reach a positive lifestyle, encountering various barriers along the way.

What you are about to see is a fairy tale, and like all good fairy tales involves a degree of poetic licence. We also require maximum audience participation, so please feel free to join in with any of the singing, whistling, cheering, booing as you see fit.

Please sit back and enjoy the ride!"

Cardigans and Waistcoats Wanted for Greenbelt 2024

'Sew Far Sew Good', an art group involving members of Gillian and Jake Lever's family, will be leading workshops for children and adults at Greenbelt Festival this August. Greenbelt is a Christian festival exploring the connections between art, faith and justice. This year the Festival's theme is 'DREAM ON' and 'Sew Far Sew Good' will be working with people of all ages to re-purpose cardigans and waistcoats into amazing technicolour dreamcoats. So, if you have any kind of cardigan or waistcoat of any size, please donate them for use at the festival.

Please bring your contributions to church and place them in the box marked "Gillian and Jake - Greenbelt Festival Cardigans and Waistcoats" by the end of June.

If you have any haberdashery items, buttons, bows, ribbons etc. to help make the cardigans and waistcoats extra dreamy we will be very thankful for those items too.

THANK YOU!

Festival of Weddings (including this most recent one)

Coming soon..... A Festival of All Saints Weddings: Past, Present and Future
Everyone is invited to participate in this new event planned for September.

A Festival of Weddings has scope to reach out in many directions. It will reflect local and social history, changing fashions and wedding service traditions and long established family connections with All Saints. It will reconnect with former parishioners and celebrate our current forward- looking, thriving community. The Festival's main focus will be an exhibition displaying items from decades of weddings at All Saints which may reflect happiness and harmony or heartbreak and hardship, prompting both reflection and celebration. The event will launch on the evening on Friday 27th September and the exhibition will be open throughout Saturday 28th and Sunday afternoon with a short concert of wedding music proposed for Saturday.

All those who were married at All Saints are encouraged to lend items and share their stories. Photographs, orders of service, lucky charms, dresses and suits are welcome, subject to there being sufficient space to display them all! The Festival is still in early planning stages. To make it a success we will also need flowers, display materials, monetary donations, musicians, refreshments and volunteers, both during the build up and at the event.

If you are willing to lend items or get involved in the Festival in any way please express your interest by e mail, to socialandfundraising@allsaintschurchkh.org including details such as the year of the wedding or what support you can offer. Alternatively, please complete a form with your details. These are available at the Welcome desk. Whatever you can contribute will be very much appreciated
Thank you

“The Spirituality of Walking”

a weekend course at Sarum College, Salisbury, 7-9 June 2024.

£300.00 residential rate.

Walking is among our most ordinary activities, but it can also be highly intentional, rich with symbolism and meaning for our lives. We can go for short local walks, or more sustained ‘planned’ walks along the myriad paths and trails that criss-cross and edge these isles. Graham Ussher notes that “as we walk into a landscape, we leave our mark on it and it leaves its mark on us; as we explore the outside, so we explore our inner selves”.

Come and spend a weekend at Sarum College, where we will walk together and explore writing about walking in prose and poetry. Writers may include Robert Macfarlane, Raynor Winn, Graham Usher, Kathleen Jamie, Thomas A. Clark, Frédéric Gros, Cheryl Strayed and Rebecca Solnit. We'll consider the relationship between walking, identity and transition, and how more recently women are claiming their voices (and feet, and bodies) as walkers and travellers alongside men. We gather in the vicinity of Elisabeth Frink's Walking Madonna (1981) and she will also form part of the weekend. Robert Macfarlane writes of walking as “enabling sight and thought ... [and] paths as offering ... ways of feeling, being and knowing”. This is very much the spirit of our journey together on this weekend.

About the course leader

Rosie Miles lives in Birmingham and spent over twenty years as an academic, teaching and writing about English Literature. She now offers poetry courses, workshops and occasional retreat events. She has contributed to many Wild Goose anthologies and her debut short poetry collection is CUTS (HappenStance, 2015). Rosie is gradually walking the entire South West Coast Path and has now walked 421 miles. She walks solo, carrying everything in her rucksack, and strongly believes walking has a great deal to teach us about living well. In recent years Rosie has also retrained as a professional gardener, and is part-time General Gardener at the Alpine Garden Society, Pershore. She also runs her own small gardening business in south Birmingham.

Photocopying:

If anyone would be willing to be inducted into the holy mysteries of our Photocopier in order to help with printing of our orders of service, please let Angela know. If she can train a few of us, then we can share the role, usually Fridays or Saturdays.

The Revd Lynn Busfield offers these weekly opportunities for reflection:

New fellowship group on Monday evenings at 7.30pm informally to discuss the previous morning's sermon.

There is room for up to eight people each time, so it would be helpful if you could let the host – Lynn Busfield – know if you are coming:

email: lynnbusfield58@icloud.com

Address: Flat 4, 28 Gracewell Road, B13 9XG

For our prayers

We give thanks for the successful bid from the Youth Investment Fund for the completion of our Community buildings, Youth Centre and permanent home for Circus Mash. We pray for all our tenants, visitors and Centre users as building work commences in April.

Among those in our community who are unwell, we remember Jean Caswell, Sheilagh Prain and Carol Fallon.
