Adrian Kozlowski's funeral takes place on Tuesday 28th January at 11.15 in All Saints.

We remember his craggy features, his smile, hopping foot to foot when talking of something absurd; his measured pace reading the Bible in Church; his furrowed brow when speaking of any matter of political justice.

If anyone would like to read the Bible Reading or a WH Auden poem at Adrian's funeral, please speak to David.

Anyone willing to download a song and relay it over the PA for the end of the service, please speak to David.

The power of the written word

Margaret Healey Pollett has donated a book for All Saints readers: The Other Side of the Wall: a Palestinian Christian Narrative of Lament and Hope by Munther Isaac. Anyone who would like to borrow it, just ask David

For our prayers

In the week of prayer for Christian Unity we pray for all our ecumenical neighbours. Remembering our shared Baptism, echoing the baptism of Christ:

Eternal Father, who at the baptism of Jesus revealed him to be your Son, anointing him with the Holy Spirit. grant to us, who are born again by water and the Spirit, that we may be faithful to our calling as your adopted children; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

With joy we pray for Mohammad's family reunited and for their settling in Birmingham, seeking school places.

Among those who are unwell we pray for Rob Hingley, Helga McKiernan and Paula Davies.

Among those who have died we remember Adrian Kozlowski, and pray for Christ Church Academy, Yardley Wood, mourning the bewildering murder of Leo Ross.
