

All Saints Church Newsletter

Next Sunday, 6th April, fifth Sunday of Lent

8am Holy Communion:

10am Holy Communion with All Ages Together: "How can I ever thank you?"

In preparation, think about the most uplifting letter you have ever received. (text, email or whatsApp, too, if that's where your uplift came.) If you are willing to talk about it with others in the service, please do be ready, but if you prefer not to that's fine.

Reading: John 12:1-8

6.30pm Evening Prayer

Electoral Roll

Although we are not a membership organisation and, as an Anglican Parish Church are here for every soul in the parish, nonetheless we are required to keep a list of those who count themselves members of All Saints. Anyone baptised, 16 or over, living in the parish or worshipping here regularly can join the roll. This year the whole CofE renews its rolls, so even if you've been on for years, you still need to confirm with Tony Cocks that you wish to remain or fill in a new form in Church. The "Electoral" aspect is your right to vote at the Annual Parochial Church Meeting when we elect PCC members and Church Wardens.

For our prayers

Among those who are unwell we pray for Martina, and for Jack Gauder.

There are quite a few of us at the moment supporting critically ill friends and neighbours, some approaching the end of their life, and also bearing with the loss of longstanding friends. David is admiring of the compassion and loyalty shimmering in the requests for prayer.

Among those who have died we remember Eddie McDermott, Paula Davies, Joan Szczepanska (pron Sepanska), and Christine Bygrave and Graham Poole, whose ashes we buried in the Memorial Garden this week.
