A Traidcraft Champion

We are very sad to hear that Gill Parkin died yesterday evening.

The areas of All Saints Church life she has not influenced, supported and led are few. From Lunch Club to Crafters, assured Bible reader at Evening Prayer to consummate Churchwarden; from Ramblers to PCC, Gill has served us as a community with tireless diligence, good humour, generous adaptability and a pastoral heart. She leaves a huge gap, what one poet described as "a sunlit absence."

We pray for John and all their family.

Gill: "May flights of angels sing thee to thy rest."
