Gill's Funeral

Tomorrow, Thursday 14th August at 2pm we welcome Gill to church for the last time, give thanks for her remarkable life and part in our fellowship, then bury her ashes in the Memorial Garden. All are welcome. There will be refreshments and time to share memories afterwards in the Garden Room.

Donations in Gill's memory are invited for:

Reaching the Unreached:

Volunteer Stewards needed for the Birmingham Heritage Week Exhibition.

This year we're focusing on All Saints rich heritage of our historic responsiveness to local community needs and the continuing provision of activities to benefit everyone.

Can you spare an hour or two on Saturday 20 September between 10am and 3pm? It promises to be a very interesting time, both in exploring the material displayed from our archives, and in welcoming other curious visitors.

Please contact Angela, or Vivien, or any of the Archive Group, to find out more or to sign up.

Many thanks.

We are glad to hear that Mohammad and his family have been allocated some more appropriate accommodation. If anyone can help provide any of these items, please let us know

For our prayers

We pray for those getting married this summer including Annabel and Gerald, Nadia and Jamel and for Chyeung Li and Hao Huang whose marriage will be blessed on Sunday afternoon.

For those who are unwell: Bernard Wilson, Roger Tyrrell and Muir Wilson.

We pray for Jean Caswell who is peacefully reaching the end of her life.

Among those who have died we remember Gill Parkin, and Ian Clark.
