This Sunday 5th October: Harvest Thanksgiving

Our Journey towards Silver:

This month we keep as Creationtide, and each week will consider one of the five areas of the Eco Church analysis, informing ourselves a little more and offering simple ways of committing and engaging.

Buildings and Energy

Lifestyle

Worship and Teaching

Community and Global

Land and Nature – our Harvest Thanksgiving

8am Holy Communion

10am Holy Communion

Readings:

Deuteronomy 26:1-12

Luke 17:5-10

There is no evening service this week.

Last week Des told us about the plan to twin our toilets with those in places where poor sanitation is a threat to human health and flourishing. Rather than a few larger donations, it would be very good if we all contributed a little: around £1.50 each would raise the £250 we need. There will be a collection box available on Sunday.

Harvest Lunch Sunday October 5th

All are welcome to come for a simple autumnal soup lunch in the cafe after our Harvest thanksgiving. It would be helpful if you could email vicar@allsaintschurchkh.org to give David an idea how much soup to make.

If anyone who would like to can bring homemade bread that will be wonderful. We particularly encourage you to come if you have recently joined us at All Saints.

We will invite donations towards the cost of soup, any profit going to Christian Aid.

Alma Beattie's funeral is to be at Robin Hood
Crematorium,
Tuesday 7th October at 1.30pm.

Margaret Guy's funeral will be at Lodge Hill
Crematorium, Thursday 23rd October at 2.30pm.

Memorial Service Sunday 26th October at 4pm

At this service we remember by name all those whose funerals have taken place here this year. It may be that you have lost someone whose funeral was elsewhere and you would like us to include their name. Please tell David if so, or add them to the list in church.

Baptism and Confirmation

Bishop Esther will celebrate a Confirmation at St Francis Bournville on the evening of Sunday 25th January 2026. We are delighted to have four candidates from All Saints. If anyone else would like to consider Confirmation, please speak to David.

Memorial Service for Bishop Mark Santer

On Sunday 16th November 3.30pm at St Philip's Cathedral, Evensong will be a memorial service for +Mark Santer, including the unveiling of a plaque remembering him as Seventh Bishop of Birmingham. All are welcome.

All Saints Community Projects (the Youth Project) board of trustees are looking for a minute taker for their board meetings.

We meet every other month on a Monday evening from 7.00 til 9.30 pm at the centre. The dates are set for the year.

The role is to

1. take notes at the meeting
2. write these up
3. send (by email) to board members before the next meeting
4. Keep signed copies of minutes and other paperwork used during the meeting. This is currently done on paper.

You should be:

1. Able to use word documents
2. Have an internet account (we can give you an email address if you prefer )
3. Understand confidentiality in this role

Interested? Then speak to Lindsey Hammond or Daniel Wilson in church or text Mary 07801067362 or email S.marymiles@btinternet.com

For our prayers

For those who are unwell: especially Michael Hursey and Phil Braithwaite.

Among those who have died we remember Phil Alden, Alma Beattie, Keith O'Leary, Jean Caswell and Margaret Guy.
